

Celebrate Chesapeake Bay Awareness Week

Join local leaders as they showcase conservation measures on a Shenandoah Valley farm

Thursday, June 8
Jimmy Callison Farm
Summerdean, VA

(intersection of Cale Springs Road and Summerdean Road)

Farm Tour begins at 9:30 a.m.
Speakers commence at 10:00 a.m.

Augusta County farmer Jimmy Callison has installed two miles of fencing and three stream crossings to keep cattle out of waterways, and has planted several hundred hardwood trees.

These steps improve the health of local streams, as well as downstream rivers and the Bay.

Speakers include:

The Honorable Emmett Hanger
Senate of Virginia and
Chesapeake Bay Commission

Richard Shiflet
Chairman, Headwaters Soil & Water
Conservation District

Joe McCue
Chair, Friends of the Middle River

Farm Bureau
Jimmy Callison
Farmer

The second annual Chesapeake Bay Awareness Week is being held June 3 to 11, 2017. The legislatures of Virginia, Maryland, and Pennsylvania established Chesapeake Bay Awareness Week to encourage citizens, localities, and organizations to hold events to educate, inspire, and increase enthusiasm and support among all residents of the watershed for restoring the Bay.
